D. C. BOUNDARY STONE IS REDEDICATED

Representative R. Walton Moore Speaker at D. A. R. Exercises

MRS. NIVEN PRESIDES

History of Selection of Site for Capital Told By Mr. Moore—Miss Fannie Burke Makes Short Address

The story of the selection of the site for the United States Capital was told by Representative R. Walton Moore of the Eighth Congressional district of Virginia in an address delivered yesterday afternoon in the auditorium of the Alexandria High School the occasion being the formal dedication of one of the thirty-nine milestones marking the original boundary of the District of Columbia, which is located on Russell Road, just north of King street. The exercises were under the auspices of Mount Vernon Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution and were to have been held in the open, but owing to the inclemency of the weather they were held in the school auditorium.

The question of locating a site for the capitol was left by said to the President of the United States and the point designated was between the Eastern Branch or a point seven-eight miles west of it. A commission was named by Washington to investigate and while this work was being done the speaker said Philadelphia was being used as a temporary seat of government.

Alexandria he said obtained but little benefit from being in the District and as early as 1804 there was agitation with a view of having that part of Virginia taken in ceded back to the state. Retrocession become operative in 1846 Alexandria being ceded back to Virginia. Since then there has been a good deal of talk heard about going back into the District of Columbia. Representative Moore however said he thought there would be but little heard of this from now on.

The speaker congratulated the Daughters of the American Revolution on locating the thirty-nine stones marking the original boundary of the District of Columbia and also commended them on their work in perpetuating historical things.

Mrs. D. Mauchlin Niven, regent of Mt. Vernon Chapter, D. A. R., presided and made a brief address regarding the location of the milestone Miss Fannie Burke told of the work accomplished by Mrs. Alma Forrester Barber in locating the stones. Two of the stones are being looked after by the local chapter Miss Burke said, one being designated as stone No. 1 at Jones' Point, and the one which was dedicated yesterday on Russell Road known as stone No. 2.

The exercises were opened with prayer offered by Rev. Dr. S. A. Wallis A children's choir song "America." At the conclusion of the exercises a number of the young people in attendance went to Russell Road and viewed the stone.

Sailor's Burial Recalled

Story of Ghostly Ship

Gloucester, Mass., Dec. 2.—The burial yesterday of John Winters recalled to oldtime fishermen a tradition of a modern "Flying Dutchman" and its ghostly crew that were believed to roam the seas in pursuit of a ship that had sent them to the bottom.

Winters was the last survivor of the crew of the Gloucester schooner Charles Haskell, which in a storm in March, 1869 ran down and sank a Salem schooner and its entire crew on Georges Fishing Banks.

Once, off Eastern Point, at the entrance of Gloucester harbor, Winters said, a schooner ran down the Haskell, hove alongside the Haskell and her phantom crew climbed the rigging declaring themselves the ghosts of the Salem fishermen.

Winters and others of the Haskell's crew refused to fish in the ship again, and a new crew was taken on. These returned with a similar story. Another, and still a fourth, crew were shipped, but each came to port with a renewal of the story. The Haskell was hauled up, unable to get men, and finished her seagoing as a sand lighter.

DECLARES WAR AGAINST ITALY

Milan Dispatch Asserts Hostilities Will Begin Friday

TROOPS FORM AT FIUME

Insurgents Commanded by D'Annunzio—They Seize British Ship—Ultimatum Expected

London, Dec. 2.—Gabriele d'Annunzio, in command of the insurgents at Fiume, has declared war on Italy, according to a Milan dispatch to the London Times.

The state of war will begin Friday.

General Caviglia, commander of the Italian regulars investing Fiume in a proclamation to be conveyed to d'Annunzio's forces by airplane, says it is the intention of the Italian Government to enforce the conditions of the Rapallo treaty without delay. This announcement is made in a dispatch from Triest.

The proclamation invites the poet's legionaires to withdraw behind the frontiers of the free state of Fiume and refrain from useless resistance to the energetic measures the Italian Government is prepared to take.

It is semiofficially announced that as the Government's order calling upon the Regency of Fiume to withdraw its troops behind the frontiers has not been obeyed, General Caviglia has proclaimed a blockade of the coast of the State of Fiume, the Islands of Vegila and Arbe and the neighboring waters.

Premier Giolitti, of Italy, speaking in the Chamber of Deputies in Rome yesterday, refused to answer a question asking whether the Government intended to take military measures against Capt. Gabriele 'Annunzio in Fiume, says a Rome dispatch to the London Times.

While General Caviglia's regulars have thrown a cordon around Fiume, only small incidents have thus far been reported, says a Milan dispatch to the Times. Every effort will be made by the regulars, it is said, to induce the followers of d'Annunzio to desert.

The dispatch quotes a telegram from Trieste to the effect that regular Alpini and some of d'Annunzio's men exchanged shots and handgrenades when the latter crossed into Italian territory proper. A few regulars were made prisoners by d'Annunzio at an advanced post on the road to Cantriva. The garrison on the Island of Veglia, held by men loyal to the poet-soldier, has been reinforced.

Fiume, Dec. 2.—Military action by Italian Regulars against the Legionaries of Capt. Gabriele d'Annunzio in this city is apparently foreshadowed in an order of the day issued by General Caviglia, commander of the regulars outside of Fiume, yesterday.

"We are faced with a sad task at the present moment," the order said, "but I rely upon your complete cooperation."

In conversation with newspaper men, General Caviglia indicated that he would retire from the scene if such a step would cause any change in the attitude of dAnnunzio, adding he would happily sacrifice himself for the good of the country.

"No Italian," he continued, "however distinguished, can expect to oppose his will to that of the nation."

In the expectation that an ultimatum from General Caviglia may be delivered at any time, the d'Annunzian forces are in a state of feverish activity. His troops are making incursions into the outposts of the regulars and capturing on occasion small groups of soldiers. Intermittent rifle firing is in progress, but no serious consequences have so far resulted.

D'Annunzio's headquarters in the palace are likewise the scene of marked activity with the hurrying to and fro of the young officers who, since the desertion of many of the older heads, now are in control of the "defense of the city." D'Annunzio himself is constantly busy in conferences with his lieutenants.

One of the young officers, when asked a question by a newspaper man, remarked as he excused himself: "We are extremely busy; we are at war."

Trieste, Dec. 2.—The British steamer Narenta, captured yesterday by D'Annunzio's arditi near Pola, has been ordered to Fiume. The steamer, which is loaded with flour and fodder, will be put into service by D'Annunzio to carry troops and ammunition to the Island of Vegila. She was bound from Pola to the Island of Lussin when captured by D'Annunzio's men.

D'Annunzio's forces carried out several miror raids yesterday along the coast of the Gulf of Quarnero.

ILLUSTRATED LECTURES

Motion Pictures at Y Lectures Sunday Afternoon

Motion pictures will be used to illustrate the talks to men and women Sunday afternoon by Rev. R. B. Nelson, of the State Bureau of Social Hygiene.

The talk to men only will be given at the Richmond theatre at 2.30 and will be on the subject of "Social Hygiene." Mr. Nelson will speak to men a half hour earlier than the regular men's meetings have heretofore been held, in order that he may get to the Ingomar to speak to women at 3.30

The talks to both men and women will be exclusively for adults and no children will be allowed. Mr. Wallace, of the Y. M. C. A. explained that there were two reasons for limiting the crowd, one because the talks will be for adults and the other because it would not be fair to admit children who might take up the limited space and thus crowd out older ones that would profit by the talk.

As soon as the lecture has been completed Mr. Nelson will explain the film that has been prepared at great expense by the government, and the picture will be shown to the men. Admission to the theatre Sunday afternoon will be by ticket only and every effort will be made to accommodate all who can possibly get into the theatre.

Tickets can be secured at most of the drug stores and at the Y. M. C. A. office in the Westminster building.

Armenians Want Wood To Administer Fund

New York, Dec 2—Armenia desires Major General Leonard Wood to administer a $20,000,000 fund which it is proposed to raise for the aid of that country, according to a cablegram to the Near East Relief from Dr. Aharonian, Armenia's diplomatic representative at the League of Nations Assembly at Geneva.

It previously had been reported that General Wood had been mentioned as a possible selection by the league to end a proposed Armenian military campaign against the Turkish nationalists.

Dr. Aharonian's cablegram said that if the $20,000,000 fund could be provided "to save Armenia from its present peril and to establish a national existence," the Armenian delegation suggested that it should be administered "preferably by an American of high reputation, such as General Wood."

Dalrymple, Once Dry Sleuth, Now in Wetter Role

Chicago, Dec. 2.—A. V. Dalrymple former prohibition enforcement officer for the Great Lakes division, yesterday appeared as representative of alleged liquor dealers.

Dalrymple, who retired several weeks ago from his government job, had a writ served on the present holder of the position, Frank Richardson, to show cause why 131 barrels of liquor seized from the Victor-Cohn Tobacco Company here should not be returned. The liquor was seized on Dalrymple's orders while he was prohibition director. Dalrymple, a representative of the Cohn Company, declared it was taken without a warrant and should be returned.

CONFESSES MURDER OF HENRY T. PEIRCE

P. D. Treadway Tells Philadelphia Police He Is Guilty

ABSOLVES THREE PALS

First Felled Victim Then Strangled Him—Changed Bloodstained Clothes in Baltimore

Philadelphia, Dec. 2.—After maintaining an impenetrable front of innocence for seven days, Peter D. Treadway last night broke down and assumed all blame for the brutal murder of Henry T. Peirce, prominent manufacturer agent, who was beaten to death in his apartment, at 2009 Market street, early on the morning of November 21.

Despite Treadway's avowal, District Attorney Reton announced last night that all four persons in the room at the time Peirce was killed would be charged with murder in the first degree. The prosecutor contends that they are all accessories after the fact, at least, if not indicated in the murder plot.

The final collapse of Treadway came about in the office of Captain of Detectives Souder. Confronted with Marie Rogers or Phillips, and his erstwhile friend, "Jack" Moss, whom he had formerly accused of committing the crime, Treadway was able to keep up his air of bravado but for an instant. Both the girl and Moss united in blaming Treadway for the murder, and after a few feeble contradictions of their stories, he broke down.

"I killed Peirce," he sobbed to Captain Souder and William Belshaw, head of the murder squad, "Moss and Marie are innocent. You ought to let them go. I'm going to tell the whole truth now, and I am the only one to blame."

As he was led back to his cell, he passed some of the newspaper men who had accompanied him on his train ride from Wheeling, W. Va., where he and the girl were captured. He nodded as he recognized them, and essayed a weak smile.

"I guess you'll get a real story tonight," he said as he was taken to his cell.

Treadway is still wearing a dark blue suit of Peirce's he took from the apartment the night of the slaying.

At Baltimore he exchanged his own blood-stained clothes for this suit, but was not cautious enough to carry his clothing with him and later pawned them in Wheeling. The suit was recovered by detectives, at the West Virginia city.

Treadway also acknowledged that he made sure of the death of Peirce, by strangling his victim after he had been felled to the floor.

"After Peirce dropped," he told the detectives, "I knelt beside him and covered his face with a towel until he stopped breathing and I was sure he was dead. I guess that's how I got the blood-stains on the knee of my trousers."

The scene when Treadway confessed to complicity in the slaying was brief but dramatic. In all it took slightly more than 20 minutes, to change Treadway's adamant denial of any connection with the murder, to complete confession and assumption of responsibility.

COST OF RESCUE OF ARMENIA

SLANDERING THE JEWS

At a time when the Jews of the world are trying to erect a state of their own in Palestine so thot they may at least have a dwelling place in their historic land they are confronted by many difficulties, and perhaps the worst are anonymous attacks cleverly designed to appear as representing the faith and purposes of the majority. No one has come forward as sponsor for the so-called "protocols," purporting to have been drawn up by the "Wise Men of Zion," a non-existent body, but unthinking persons in many parts of the world have been deceived by them so that a formal protest has been made.

That the Jews should have a programme expressed or unexpressed of dominating the whole world is too absurd to require refutation. The Jews are too practical to consider such a thing in the least degree possible supposing as no one believes that it is desirable. There is a considerable difference of opinion among Jews as to what steps can be taken in the new state which will produce the most desirable results. These differences of opinion are not vital and for the moment the greater consideration is as to the extent of the new territory. Just now the British mandate is too small for the economic development of the country, since it does not include neighboring natural resources of the first importance.

All know that at present Palestine is populated by fellahin whose ancestors have lived there for milleniums. Turkish rule has reduced the country and the people to a low ebb to make the new Palestine immigration of Jews—no one supposes it will involve more than a fraction of the race—involves not only more territory, but vast expenditures of money which patriotic and benevolent persons of many religions will give.

The situation just now is in a state of flux and much depends upon what the League of Nations will decide as to territorial limits, as to British mandatory control, etc. There is a fine prospect of working out the problems in a satisfactory manner, slowly it may be, but with eventual certainty. It is therefore amazing that anonymous persons should engage in a propaganda designed to defeat any action whatever. It is not believed that Jews are back of this movement and probably they will ignore it, but they are entitled to sympathy and support at a time when their highest aspirations are so near fruition.

Jerusalem is a Sacred City of three religions and it is certain that Jews have not the slightest intention of disturbing this situation. They want to make the Holy Land prosperous and a drawing centre for all nations of the earth. This recent incident must eventually assist them in their plans which have the commendation of all good people everywhere.

SPORTS

In an interesting wrestling match at the Gibraltar A. C. of Alexandria, T. Bowles threw W. P. Byrd in 19 minutes with an arm scissors, and arm lock, for the main event.

In the preliminary, H. Rose, and A. Otis, went through thirty minutes to a draw, there being much action and plenty of pep.

M. Elliott out classed Corsa in a three round sparring match that was full of pep and ginger, and all that were present enjoyed themselves immensely.

The Gibraltars are planning an oyster supper for the men of Alexandria on December 15, at 8 p. m. Tickets can be obtained from members, and at G. Constantinople's fruit store, 406 King street.

The Destroyer Athletic Club wishes games with any 130-pound basketball team in the city. They are now arranging the 1920-21 schedule and any teams wishing games are requested to communicate with D. E. Jameson, 514 King street.

"Tipped Off" Men Who Stole Bonds

New York, Dec. 2.—Joseph Gregario, aged 25, arrested last night with his brother, Tony, aged 20, in connection with the hold-up and robbery of $457,000 worth of bonds from two brokers' messengers, has confessed that he "tipped off" several confederates who carried out the theft, District Attorney Lewis, of Brooklyn, announced last night.

The youngser brother was employed as head runner for Kean, Taylor & Co., the brokerage firm which was sending the bonds to a Brooklyn firm in exchange for other securities. Joseph confessed, the official said, that Tony telephoned him when the messengers left the office and when they might be expected to reach Brooklyn.

Joseph told the officials he had met several men in craps games in Brooklyn who showed much interest in him when they learned his brother was employed in a brokerage house. These men suggested he declared, that it would be easy for Tony to give the "tip" when there was "a big job on" and this procedure was followed.

Ex-Empress Longs For Death

Doorn, Holland Dec. 2.—The condition of Augusta Victoria, the former German Empress, was little changed during the day. She was still fully conscious at 5 o'clock yesterday evening, though much exhausted by the heart attacks.

One of the residents of the castle said to the Associated Press yesterday afternoon: "The Empress, realizing the seriousness of her condition, is quite resigned and actually longs for the end of her sufferings, which began in 1918."

Petersburg City Manager Foretells Improvements

Petersburg, Dec. 2.—In his first public statement regarding plans for the future welfare of the city, City Manager Louis Brownlow yesterday set forth his intentions to make a bigger and more beautiful city of Petersburg. In a lengthy statement, the new city head declared for prompt measures to relieve congestion in the business sections of the city by widening many streets and cutting many new thoroughfares.

Manager Brownlow was of the opinion that the program for a bigger city to take care of its needs should be completed within the next two or three years. This program he said, calls for the erection of the overhead bridge across the Norfolk and Western station and tracks and the Appomattox River to the Richmand-Petersburg Turnpike, a city park and drive of over 1,500 acres; thoroughly reorganized police department and a complete sewer, water and paving project.

WARNS OF SECRET JAP-GERMAN PACT

Philadelphia, Dec. 2.—Strong belief in the existence of a secret pact between Germany and Japan was expressed yesterday by General Robert Georges Nivelle, the "Hero of Verdun," who spent the day here as the guest of the city.

General Nivelle was commissioned by the French Government, at the division of the American Mayflower Council, to attend the Pilgrim Tercentenary celebrations that are being held in 70 cities of this country, and at the same time to take part in the observance in America of the second anniversary of Armistice Day.

"I believe that there is a secret treaty between Germany and Japan," the General declared. "Of course, there is no proof of it, but I believe it nevertheless. Your country should be even more interested in this than mine. Japan is preparing for something—what, I cannot say—but she has an enormous war budget, and there are indications of more than friendly relations between her and Germany.

Speaking of Germany's admission to the League of Nations, the distinguished Frenchman expressed the opinion that she should by all means be permitted to enter, but not until she has given evidence of good faith.

CAMERON LODGE, FAMOUS HOMESTEAD, PREY TO FIRE

Charlottesville, Va., Dec. 2.—"Cameron Lodge," the old homestead of Alexander Cameron and one of the show places of Virginia, was destroyed by fire early yesterday evening, together with its contents. The blaze, thought to have been due to a defective flue in the furnace was discovered shortly after 6 o'clock.

Fanned by a high wind from the west, the splendid mansion burned rapidly, and in fifteen minutes after the alarm was turned into the Gordonsville fire department, the roof had fallen in. Firemen reached the scene too late to render any aid.

The only members of the household at home at the time of the fire were Misses Helen and Jean Cameron. They with the servants of the place, barely had time to escape from the burning structure. None of the furniture was saved.

The mansion, located on a small mountain one mile north of Gordonsville, on the pike to Somerset, was a magnificent structure of brick and stone. It commanded a view of the surrounding country and, from its tower, the Blue Ridge Mountains could be seen some thirty miles to the west.

Don and Alexander Cameron, who were in Richmond at the time, were expected to reach Gordonsville on the midnight train.

The sky was lighted up for a radius of over 30 miles. The reflection from the flames could be easily seen from Charlottesville.

STIFF LAWS, HUGE REVENUE FORCE, KRAMER'S SOLUTION

An increase of nearly 1,000 per cent in the Enforcement Bureau personnel is necessary if prohibition is to be made effective, Prohibition Commissioner Kramer will tell Congress, it was learned here yesterday.

Kramer will also ask that the powers of the commissioner be vastly increased; that penalties for violation of the law be made more drastic, and that restrictions on the manfacture of ardent spirits even for commercial purposes be made heavier.

The Bureau of Internal Revenue hopes during the next year to cut down the overwhelming number of infractions of the Volstead law with which it has been confronted. An example is given by Leo A. Crossen, supervising agent for Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Delaware, who reports 2,500 arrests made in that district between January 16 and October 10.

Between March and September last, a total of 25,092.25 gallons of spirits and 102 automobiles carrying liquor were seized in Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Delaware.

Two Kentucky Juveniles Stone Father to Death

Lexington, Ky., Dec. 2.—Word reached here late yesterday from McKee, Jackson county, of the most unusual murder ever committed in the mountains of Kentucky. Boecham Smith, aged 14, and his brother Carlo aged 13, are charged with having killed their father, Sidney Smith, by stoning him.

The alleged murder occurred near Clover Bottom, in the most inaccessible part of Jackson county, the only section of the State which has no railroad. The deed was discovered after the elder Smith had been dead several hours and the boys were arrested. They were taken to McKee under guard and placed in jail. Both have apparently become imbued with the stoicism of the mountain people and sit silently awaiting whatever is to be their fate. Their trial is to be held in January.

The three lived together in a little cabin far from the regular thoroughfares in that section. There is no intimation that Smith ill-treated his sons, according to the meager reports from there. The boys are the youngest persons ever accused of murder in Kentucky.

BUFFALO POLICE DRIVE NEGROES FROM THAT CITY

Buffalo, N. Y., Dec. 1.—Within the past 48 hours more than 1,000 negroes, discharged from the industrial plants in this city during the recent business depression, have been forced out of Buffalo by the police. Numerous raids have been conducted in the negro districts in the city and every one who cannot prove that he is employed is placed under arrest.

Many negroes have become frightened at the police activities and have left the city of their own accord. Some of these negroes, it is said, have withdrawn liberal amounts from savings banks and have departed for their homes in the Southern States. Pawnbrokers report to the police that during the past few days many negroes have called at their establishments to pawn clothing and jewelry to enable them to get out of the city. Large employers of the city are not disturbed over the exodus, as there has been a surplus of common labor in Buffalo for several months, according to employment managers.

Low Tobacco Prices May Result In Using Crop as Fertilizer

Farmers in Virginia are considering using their tobacco as fertilizer rather than sell it at prevailing prices according to information which has reached the Virginia Department of Agriculture. It was stated there yesterday that requests have been received from several farmers asking for the analysis of tobacco as a fertilizer, and that it is being forwarded to them.

D. M. Ganaway, for many years president of the Farmers' Union of Virginia and a resident of Farmville, is one of the men who have written the department concerning tobacco as fertilizer. In his letter he asked whether the lower grades and stems would be more profitable used as fertilizer than sold as tobacco at the price offered for [illegible].

Analysis of the product shows it to contain a large per cent of nitrogen, a small quantity of phosphoric acid, and large quantities of potash and lime.

Announcing Cottage Park, and Braddock, Collection, Wednesday.

Auction Sale

Public sale of Holsteins at Rockbridge Dairy Farm Wednesday, December 15 (rain or shine), on the far mof David N. Rust, Jr., located three miles east of Leesburg, Loudoun county, on the Washington Leesburg Pike and being on Goose Creek, ten minutes walk from Conner Station on the Washington and Old Dominion Railway. Car leaves Alexandria at 7:10 a. m., arriving at 9:30 o'clock. Will be met. Having decided to discontinue dairying I will offer at public auction on above date and place without reservation my entire herd of milking Holsteins. 80 head, 16 head registered animals, 64 head high grade cows. The majority of these animals have been bred and developed right on the farm and were sired by such noted bulls as King of Butter Boy, King's Son and Soldiers Home Woodcrest Tehee. These cows are all young straight and sound and have never been forced in dairy, but simply run on blue grass pasture in summer and consumed the roughage on the farm in winter with little grain fed. Consequently they will respond immediately to heavy feeding. Some are fresh now, milking well and quite a number due within thirty to sixty days. All bred to fine registered bull. The grades are well marked and will make a valuable addition to any herd. The pure breds carry some of the best blood of the breed. The cows have just passed the annual Federal test and health certificates can be issued for shipment to any state in the union. This herd is considered to be on one of the best in Northern Virginia.

Terms of sale. Three per cent off for cash or a nine months' note with satisfactory indorsement.

Lunch served on grounds.

Postal authorities admitted yesterday that final checking of the loot placed its value at almost five million dollars.
